

BARODA HIGH SCHOOL, ONGC (Afternoon Shift)*Primary Section*UT- I Examination: 2025-26*Subject: - ENGLISH*Date: 31/07/25*Std - VII*Marks: 25*Q1. A. Match the following column A with column B.*(2)

Column A	Column B
1. Mridu	i) Seeks answers to three questions
2. The Hermit	ii) Observes Ravi giving chappals
3. Lalli	iii) Helps a wounded man
4. The King	iv) Plays the violin

B. State whether the following statements are true or false:(1)

- a) The children gave their own chappals to the beggar.
- b) The king learns the answers to his questions from a hermit.

C. Choose the correct meaning of the following:(2)

- a) Compassion
 - i) Anger
 - ii) Kindness
 - iii) Fear
 - iv) Joy
- b) Proclaim
 - i) Hide
 - ii) Announce
 - iii) Forget
 - iv) Ignore
- c) wounded
 - i) severely injured
 - ii) wind
 - iii) loyal
 - iv) Joy
- d) pity
 - i) pardon
 - ii) give back
 - iii) pit
 - iv) feel sorry for

D. Complete the sentences using appropriate form of the verbs given in the bracket: (2)

- a) If the king helps others, he _____ (find) peace. (simple future tense)
- b) Mridu _____ (visit) the beggar to check on his health tomorrow. (simple future continuous)
- c) The train _____ (left) before I arrived at the station. (past perfect)
- d) She _____ (eat) all the snacks.

E. Complete the following "If" conditional sentences.(1)

- a) If the children had not given the chappals to the beggar, _____.
- b) If the king had not stayed with the hermit, _____.

F. Identify the phrasal verbs and write in the blanks provided below:(2)

- (i) He bounced up and scurried towards a bamboo tray of red chillies that had been set out to dry.

_____, _____.

- (ii) The king put on ordinary clothes. Before he reached the hermit's hut the king left his horse with a soldier and went on alone. _____, _____.

Q2. (A) Rewrite the given sentences using the pronouns as specified for each sentence: (2)

- a) The king learned all the answers. (Use a reflexive pronoun)
- b) The chappals were given to the beggar. The beggar was poor. (Use a relative pronoun)
- c) He did the work. (Use an emphatic pronoun)
- d) Cinthia herself collected all the flowers from the garden. (Identify the type of pronoun).

(B) Read the passage given below and answer questions as indicated. (5)

One chilly morning, Shikha noticed her classmate, Dipti, sitting alone on a bench, looking sad. Her jacket was torn, and she shivered in the cold. Instead of joining her friends, Shikha walked over and offered her spare scarf. "Here, this will keep you warm," she said with a smile. Dipti hesitated but accepted it gratefully. Later, Shikha learned that Dipti's family was struggling, and she felt embarrassed about her worn-out clothes. The next day, Shikha quietly left a new jacket in her locker with a note that read, "You're not alone." That small act of kindness changed Dipti's outlook. She began to smile more and even helped others in class. Shikha's simple gesture showed how a single act of kindness can warm not just a person's body but their heart, too.

1. Why was Dipti sitting alone?
2. What can we learn about kindness from this story?
3.
 - i) Identify a phrasal verb from the passage.
 - ii) The word "chilly" means in the passage: _____.
4.
 - i) "quietly" is which part of speech in the paragraph given above.
 - ii) Identify and write a modal verb from the passage.
5.
 - i) Give a title to this passage.

C. Answer the following questions in 1-2 sentences. (3)

1. How did the hermit help the king understand the answers to his questions?
2. What was the opinion of the adults of the house about the pet animals?
3. Why did the man ask for forgiveness from the king?

Q.3 Write as directed below: (5)

- A. Write a short composition on "If I could talk to my favourite pet....".

B. Compare the themes of kindness in chapter “The Gift of Chappals” and “The Three Questions”. How do the characters show kindness in each story?